4 Riverside Drive NORNALUP WA

18 9 12

Nornalup Riverside Chalets presents a unique business and lifestyle opportunity for a buyer looking to semi-retire in a picturesque Southern Coastal town. Nornalup sits on the banks of the Frankland River, attracting guests venturing through the surrounding national parks on their way to the many local attractions like The Valley of the Giants, Conspicuous Cliffs Whale Watching Lookout and Walpole to name a few.

The current owners have enjoyed the peaceful lifestyle for 12 years now, becoming a major part of the town's fabric. The park consists of eight self-contained units with varying bedding layouts with an additional owner's residence and office. There are barbeque facilities that overlook a beautiful lawned area so the kids can play while you cook. Just over the road from the chalets on the banks of the river is the licensed canoe hire facility where you can cast
